

- Please read all handouts
- Search online and understand the concepts of hardware firewall, NAT and VPN
- If you are working in a corporate environment then ask your network and security team if they have hardware firewall and what kind. Also check with them NAT and VPN functionality
- Check with your App/DB team what kind of security they have enabled in their applications and database